Under this new agreement funding for Mozambique will reach 60 million over the next five years. Funding for Lesotho will reach 10 million over the same period. O My bleedin G

This new agreement will make Ireland the largest country donor to the Clinton Foundation HIV/AIDS Initiative."

Why did the US Attorney General put a block on the FBI taking the investigation any further?

Was the Irish public monies paid through the Clinton Global Initiative or directly to the Clinton Foundation (if so I don't see it on that list) or directly to Mozambique through the Clinton initiative?

Ireland appears high on the chart above because of the CF bribes paid by Denis O'Brien. The figure above should show Malta instead of Ireland here, as technically the figures would be based on tax resident individuals, and O'Brien is tax resident in Malta not Ireland for tax avoidance.

This Clinton Foundation has the smell of a cover story around it for high level bribery. Given some of the characters involved that is likely to be a racing certainty.

International aid has been the scene of a number of scams- including involving the One Foundation in New York promoted by Bono. A senior member of staff there disappeared with a lot of money a few years back.

Two or three countries reneged on discussions around funding that privately registered and run charity purely because of the lack of governance around it.

Looks like the Irish charity sector is as dismal as the international aid sector in certain ways.

It won't be long before even notorious African nations will be looking askance at certain western practices in connection with 'aid'.

King's Inns must be destroyed. Please note that the views expressed in these posts are not necessarily the views of the poster but may be written on behalf of the Irish Dead, the Ecclesiastical Betting Agency (Turf Accountants to the Clergy) and occasionally the Plain People of Ireland.

Wow, nice try there, spend less than 6% on actual Aid and try to justify creaming off the other 94%. It's twats with that attitude that enable them to do this.

> In an interview with The Sunday Times, journalist Decca Aitkenhead asked the Clintons if someone with a beard and a penis can ever be a woman, to which Chelsea replied emphatically, 'Yes.'

Chelsea and Hillary Clinton disagree on trans self-identification Journalist Decca Aitkenhead said Hillary became 'uneasy' when she asked about trans identification, while Chelsea shot a 'furious stare' at the journalist as her mother answered.
